

THE past week has been devoted largely, as to its society aspect, to "merrying and giving in marriage," and the antecedents thereof. The affairs in which the little blind god plays an important part are always of interest to the world feminine, and the doings of the brides, and of their many friends who would honor them before they are led away to the altar, have formed the nucleus around which has been hung many a cosy chat during the past few days.

With the passing of the marriage epidemic, which is always prevalent the early part of June, society affairs will be less and less of a formal nature, and, as becomes the summer season, more of the out-door style. With the close of the theatrical season, affairs of the winter time are ended, and there will be more of the lake, the mountain and the veranda to nearly all entertainments.

Coming Events.

An event in which society has been most deeply interested for some time is the marriage on Tuesday next of Miss Elizabeth Dorn and Mr. William H. Cunningham. The ceremony will take place at 5 o'clock, at St. Paul's church, and will be a most elaborate one. The bride will be attended by her sister, Miss Dorn, as maid of honor, and by the Misses Kerkow, McMillan, Miller and McGrath as bridesmaids. Mr. Robert Giendinning will be the best man, and the ushers will be Mr. Fred Dorn, Mr. Chester Nason, Mr. George Lawrence and Mr. Tod Goodwin. Bishop Leonard and the Rev. C. E.

Perkins will perform the ceremony, and admission to the church will be by card only. The musical programme will be furnished by the Anderson-Lamson quartette, and by the church organist, Mr. Berkhoff. The ceremony will be followed by a wedding supper for the bridal party.

The marriage of Miss Eloise Rancke and Mr. Mortimer Senter Allen will take place Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock at St. Mark's cathedral. The ceremony will be performed by Dean Eddle, and Mr. and Mrs. Allen will leave on the noon train for the west.

The marriage of Miss Marion Knickerbocker and Mr. Frederick Hugh Knickerbocker will take place Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock, at the home of the bride's parents. The ceremony will be performed by the Rev. A. E. Knickerbocker of Nebraska City, a brother of the groom. The bride will be attended by Miss Calla Chatfield of Denver as maid of honor, and by Miss Marie Luce as bridesmaid. Mr. Harry Miller will be the best man.

The Misses Eloise and Laura Sherman will entertain at cards Tuesday afternoon, in honor of Miss Edna Sherman, and at an informal party again on Thursday evening.

Mrs. W. W. Ritter will entertain informally tomorrow evening in honor of Professor Richard R. Lyman, who leaves shortly for Columbia to take a post graduate course.

The younger set in society circles is looking anxiously forward to the hop to be given by the Junior officers at Fort Douglas Wednesday evening.

Mrs. W. R. Wightman entertains in honor of her sister, Mrs. Platt, next Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. A. J. Hosmer will entertain at a series of parties the early part of next week, Monday evening and Tuesday afternoon and evening.

Dr. and Mrs. Henry La Motte will entertain at an informal dancing party on Tuesday, June 17.

Mr. and Mrs. Ledyard M. Bailey will entertain at dinner this evening in honor of the anniversary of their wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Simon Bamberger give a large dinner this evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Price entertain informally this evening.

Mrs. David Keith will entertain at a luncheon on Saturday next.

Mrs. James E. Jennings will entertain at a luncheon next Friday.

Weddings of the Week.

A very pretty wedding which occurred last evening was that of Miss Anabel Bastian and Mr. Oscar Herman Johnson. The ceremony took place at the home of Mrs. Alice Merrill Horne at 8 o'clock, the Rev. Clarence T. Brown of the First Congregational church officiating. The bride was attended by the Misses Edna Barker, Clara Cooper, Winnifred Woodmansee, Edna Mason and Mary Moffett. The parlor was decorated in pink and white, an arch of pink roses and white syringa extending over the heads of the bride and groom. Pink roses were bunched on the mantel, and sprays of the flowers were draped on the cur-lains. In the hall red was the color used and here was stationed a punch bowl at which Miss Lily Horne presided. The colors in the dining room were red and green, and the dining room was in charge of Miss Maud Paul.

The bride wore a dainty gown of white with a berth of real lace, and carried a large cluster bouquet of bride's roses. Mr. and Mrs. Johnson will make their home here.

Six large weddings have taken place in the past week, the first being the double one Tuesday evening of Miss Ethel Carter to Mr. A. H. Dutton, and Miss Emma Carter to Mr. A. W. Leggett. The young people have many friends in the city who showered good wishes on them. They will return shortly from a brief trip and will be at home at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Carter, at 533 West First South street.

The same evening occurred the marriage of Miss Pearl Lucas and Mr. Dean Stuart Hamilton of the Baptist church. The ceremony was followed by a reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lucas later in the evening. Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton will make their home in Mountain Home, for which place they will leave tomorrow morning.

One of the prettiest weddings of the past week was that of Miss Ethel Pond and Mr. William Werner Crome, which also took place Tuesday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Crome left immediately after the ceremony for a trip of some weeks to the coast.

Wednesday saw the union of Miss Ida Moyle and Mr. Ray Van Cott, the ceremony taking place in the temple at noon, and a most elaborate reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Moyle following in the evening.

Wednesday evening at 6 o'clock occurred the marriage of Miss Edith Moffat and Mr. Joseph Patrick. After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents from 9 till 11 o'clock.

High Tea.

One of the pleasantest events planned in honor of the June brides was the high tea given by Miss Gertrude McGrath Tuesday evening, complimentary to Miss Elizabeth Dorn and Mr. Cunningham. The house decorations were white and pale green, and the lawn was arranged with cosy corners and nooks for quiet conversation. In the center of each of the six tables was a bridal wreath of small roses tied with dainty ribbons, and the place cards were tiny disks of white with the joined initials of the guests of honor. The wedding ring thought was carried out in the refreshments as well as the decorations. Nearly thirty guests were seated, and a most delightful evening was passed.

A Dainty Luncheon.

Miss Leta McMillan was the hostess at a beautifully appointed pink luncheon given on Wednesday last in honor of Miss Elizabeth Dorn. The color used in decoration of the table was pink, and the shades ranged from a deep to a pale rose. The guests were seated at one long table, and a beautiful centerpiece was formed by a tall vase of sweet peas surrounded by asparagus plumosa. At each place was a dainty basket filled with the fragrant flowers arranged on a bed of asparagus plumosa. The guests were the Misses Dorn, Kerkow, McGrath, Zahne, Porter, Miller, Bersbach, Young and Lena Preston.

Kensington.

Miss Sadie McChrystal was the guest of honor at a most enjoyable Kensington given last Tuesday afternoon at the home of Miss June McIntyre. The beautiful home was artistically decorated with roses, and the spacious porches were fitted for use also. Besides the thimble part of the after-
